LOVE ME SHARE ME May 27 2022 Love Me. Share Me., is an adaptation of the co-parenting struggles transformed into a bubbly affectionate children's picture book. It tackles the stereotypes about the very sensitive but common family dynamic of children being raised in different households. In this book, parents and children follow along with Charli, the main character, on her journey between "Mommys" and "Daddys" house's. We see the innocence and love of a child as she shares her feelings of all the fun loving activities and time she spends with her parents, despite them living in two different homes. This book creates parental introspect and illustrates positivity, all while generating dialogue between parents and children as well as parents and co-parents.

SPINNING TOP Stories Little People To Love & Share Jan 23 2022 This wise and wonderful collection of short stories journeys into the world of 'little people'. It is a universe filled with wild adventures, great excitement, high hopes, deep fears and looming dilemmas. Here is a world where children, animals and innocence rule the day - and adults are welcome to enter only if accompanied by a child! Nitya Satyani uses her experience as a parent, teacher and writer, to imbue these delightful tales with the rich colours of childhood, where reality and fantasy merge in the engrossing art of spinning stories.

Breasts: A Natural and Unnatural History May 03 2020 A 2012 New York Times Notable Book A 2013 Los Angeles Times Book Award Winner in the Science & Technology category An engaging narrative about an incredible, life-giving organ and its imperiled modern fate. Did you know that breast milk contains substances similar to cannabis? Or that it's sold on the Internet for 262 times the price of oil? Feted and fetishized, the breast is an evolutionary masterpiece. But in the modern world, the breast is changing. Breasts are getting bigger, arriving earlier, and attracting newfangled chemicals. Increasingly, the odds are stacked against us in the struggle with breast cancer, even among men. What makes breasts so mercurial—and so vulnerable? In this informative and highly entertaining account, intrepid science reporter Florence Williams sets out to uncover the latest scientific findings from the fields of anthropology, biology, and medicine. Her investigation follows the life cycle of the breast from puberty to pregnancy to menopause, taking her from a plastic surgeon's office where she learns about the importance of cup size in Texas to the laboratory where she discovers the presence of environmental toxins in her own breast milk. The result is a fascinating exploration of where breasts came from, where they have ended up, and what we can do to save them.

I Love Mormons Sep 06 2020
David L. Rowe asserts that many Mormons view Christian witnessing as Bible bashing.

What Christians need to understand, he suggests, is that Latter-day Saints are an entirely separate ethnic group with their own history, values, and customs. Evangelizing Mormons can be so much more effective if Christians first know, understand, and respect Mormon heritage. With helpful illustrations and discussions of Mormon values and theology, Rowe calls Christians away from confrontational evangelism and instead suggests active listening and respect as a way to bridge Christian beliefs and Mormon culture. A glossary in the back of the book and discussion questions at the end of each chapter will help readers apply these concepts in their own witnessing experiences. In the end, Christians will be more approachable representatives of Christ.

The Love We Share Without Knowing Apr 25 2022 In this haunting, richly woven novel of modern life in Japan, the author of the acclaimed debut One for Sorrow explores the ties that bind humanity across the deepest divides. Here is a Murakamiesque jewel box of intertwined narratives in which the lives of several strangers are gently linked through love, loss, and fate. On a train filled with quietly sleeping passengers, a young man's life is forever altered when he is miraculously seen by a blind man. In a quiet town an American teacher who has lost her Japanese lover to death begins to lose her own self. On a remote road amid fallow rice fields, four young friends carefully take their own lives—and in that moment they become almost as one. In a small village a disaffected American teenager stranded in a strange land discovers compassion after an encounter with an enigmatic red fox, and in Tokyo a girl named Love learns the deepest lessons about its true meaning from a coma patient lost in dreams of an affair gone wrong. From the neon colors of Tokyo, with its game centers and karaoke bars, to the bamboo groves and hidden shrines of the countryside, these souls and others mingle, revealing a profound tale of connection—uncovering the love we share without knowing. Exquisitely perceptive and deeply affecting, Barzak's artful storytelling deftly illuminates the inner lives of those attempting to find—or lose—themselves in an often incomprehensible world.

The Every Baby Book Sep 18 2021 This cute, inclusive board book celebrates the things that families of all kinds share—and the love at the heart of each one Every baby's day is different, but lots of first experiences are shared, too. From the Back Cover: Despite her childhood hardships, then losing the love of her life and becoming a young widow with four children, the beautiful, vivacious Margie dedicated her life to loving, caring and sharing her wisdom. Margie opened her heart and her home to help those who needed her loving guidance. With unswerving devotion to her family and friends, she transformed lives and inspired joy and hope in everyone through her generosity, sense of fun, and unfailing faith. The many recollections within this uplifting tribute to a unique, sweet soul, portray Margie's loving legacy. Love, Care and Share will inspire you to find what is most important to you. You will discover your own truth, and how everyone, everywhere, every day has opportunities to make a positive difference. Margie always said, "We are the hands and fingers of God, but we have to use them." Praise for LOVE, CARE AND SHARE I started reading Love, Care and Share just after 7pm and it's now 9:20pm. I was deeply drawn into it and it was like being with Margie again, only through your eyes and words. For these past few hours she "Lived" again. Thank you for that. The raw emotion expressed comes through vividly, about a Son's Love for his Mother bringing her life into meaningful events and wanting her to be remembered as someone many of us Loved. I have often said to others that we go through life never really seeing others and ourselves but for our outer shells/bodies, instead of seeing the real entity that we are; which is the Soul. Margie saw the Soul and therefore was able to love as she did. - Chris Price I can't tell you how much I enjoyed reading about your Mom in Love, Care and Share. It was amazing and the stories just made me sorry I didn't know her myself. She must have had the biggest, kindest heart. Her willingness to give her time and her home and anything else which was needed made her very special indeed. You must miss her terribly. It was amazing and the stories just made me sorry I didn't know her myself. She must have had the biggest, kindest heart. Her willingness to give her time and her home and anything else which was needed made her very special indeed. You must miss her terribly. Your writing was lovely and by the end, I felt as though I knew all of you in a way I hadn't before. Thank you for sharing it with me my friend. - Love, Sherry

Divided into four sections based on the distinct seasons of love, Celebrating Love features 150 entries, including: * Spring: "Love that is not madness is not love." --Pedro Calderon de la Barca *

Summer: Meeting you was fate.
Becoming your friend was a choice. Falling in love with you was beyond my control.

Becoming your wife was my fairytale come true. * Fall: The Geography of Love * The oldest love song in existence, whose origin is from somewhere between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers, was written 4,000 years ago. * Nevada issues 120,000 marriage licenses a year. * Winter: I love you, my forgetful wife. Who knew that love not only lasts longer than memory, but that it continues to grow?

The Love They Could Not Share
Oct 08 2020

The book is about the story of two women who, after they were killed, their souls won't leave the Mother Earth until their sentimental wishes were accomplished. The spirit of Mary Scarlet Scarborough, a loving mother who was accidentally killed in a robbery, witnessed the anguish of her only loving son, David, who promised to crush the head of her killer when they meet. She would stay and guide David until the day he would meet her killer. During the Second World War, David surrendered to the Imperial Japanese Army during the fall of Bataan and became a part of the death march, but he escaped and became a member of the guerilla unit that formed the Silent Killers. In their journey on top of the Sierra Madre Mountain Range, he would meet Rosemarie Borromeo, who would fall in love with him but would be killed by a Japanese soldier during a rescue operation to free her father, Commander Borromeo. The spirit of Rosemarie won't leave the Mother Earth until David finds the woman he would love and marry.

Twice in the story, the spirit of Mary Scarlet would save the life of David. Rosemarie also saved the life of David a couple of times during and after the Second World War.. After their divine intentions were accomplished, the spirits of Mary Scarlet and Rosemarie left the Mother Earth happy, smiling, and contented with the love they could not share.
